

Candidates' consent to Privacy Information Statement and use of data for marketing purposes

You are about to register with our company as a candidate. After your registration, the company will include and process your personal data in its systems for a certain period of time. Our portal will create an account for you, depending on what services the company can provide to you.

Privacy Notice We want to inform you about privacy. We are committed to protect and respect your privacy. Our Privacy Notice describes how we safeguard your privacy, the purposes for which we process your data and when, and your rights to privacy through shaping how we may process your personal data. Please read this carefully!

By clicking this box below, you are indicating that you agree to the terms of our Privacy Notice.

One box → “I understand and accept the Privacy Notice”

Marketing

One box → “I accept that the company can use my contact information for direct marketing for example via e-mail, messaging or telephone”

You may opt out for marketing communication at any time, by contacting us at quality@adecco.be.

Thank you!

The Spring Professional team